Hear Singers On TV

The Beta Club singers (above) will be singing Thursday night for Appomattox Lions and their Ladies, again that same night at the Varsity Club Variety Show at the ACHS auditorium and on Friday morning over WLVA-TV (Channel 13, Lynchburg). They will present their award winning musical medley "Which Way, America?" which won first prize statewide at a recent Beta Club Convention. They were featured at Friday evening's banquet of the Appomattox County High School's chapter, Future Homemakers of America. Miss Deanna Lawrence, of TV-13's "Calendar" presentation invited the singers to be a part of the April 9th observance of the singing of peace terms at Appomattox by Lee and Grant and a program devoted to patriotism.

"Take Home" Treasures From Class

Each art pupil of Mrs. Mary Ann Ross, of Altavista, had treasures to take home last week as the last class of the current season came to a conclusion with an informal show at the Rescue Squad Building, Appomattox. Collages, still lifes, oil paintings and sketches were part of the offerings. (from left, foreground, Sue Lawson, Rindy Lawson and Danny Scruggs. Behind: Susan Godsey, Cindy Morris, Terry Burger, Carol McFadden, Jeff Harrison, Wesley Riley, Beth Lawson and Tyle Beasley. The class was sponsored by the Appomattox Woman's Club.

SPOUT SPRING

The regular meeting of Spout Spring Ruritans will be at Spout Spring School April 12th at 7 p. m.

Congratulations to the good people at Salem Methodist Church. They have dug a well, and will install water in the church and other improvements on their education building in the near future.

Mrs. R. A. Wooton is a patient at Lynchburg General Hospital where she is receiving treatment. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Plans are being made for a Spout Spring Baptist Church Week of Prayer each night during next week, April 11 - 16. There will be meetings in homes each night except Sunday and Wednesday which will be at church. Revival services beginning April 18 — April 23. Special music each night. All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cyrus was the dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Reynolds Sunday.

Glad to report that Mrs. Coyler Scruggs is improving at her home here after a short stay at the hospital last week.

The W.S.C.S of Salem Church will have its regular monthly meeting Thurs., April 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Harry Reynolds. Mrs. Carrie Gilbert will be guest speaker.

Mr. Frank Dean of near Concord, visited in the home of W.A. Moon Sunday. W. A. Moon and Miss Margaret Moon attended services at Memorial Church in Appomattox on Sunday and was dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moon. Bill Moon, of V.P.I., was also a guest in this home Sunday.

Macks Plan Greenhouse Establishment

It's not Leon Maik, it's Leon Mack! -- one of the newest residents in Appomattox.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack advertised for at least eight weeks in the TIMES – VIRGINIAN to locate a suitable home. Thanks to new friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Torbert of Concord, they have located a home on Rt. 460 just west of Appomattox.

The Macks plan to open a greenhouse establishment in the southwestern section of Appomattox county on Road 649, at the former home and property of Fred Jones. Building of the greenhouse and other buildings will take about three months, says Mr. Mack, with operations scheduled to begin in September.

The Macks will be offering perennials and potted chrysanthemums to wholesale houses and for individual sale.

Mr. Mack is a mechanical engineer from Amherst, New Hampshire. The Macks are parents of a daughter, Pamela, 7, and a boy, Kevin 5.

Deputy Sheriff Rickmond is married to the former Juanita Martin of Evergreen.

Jaycees Plan Teenage Driving Road-E-O

The Appomattox County Jaycees plan to conduct a teenage driving Road-e-o for interested teenagers. The Road-E-O will be held in Appomattox and will be open to all teenagers who qualify and secure written permission from their parents to participate. The tentative date for the written test is April 17, 1971, and the skill driving test on April 18, 1971.

The following main requirements must be met to be eligible to compete. The entrants must be single, must not have reached their 19th birthday prior to October 1, 1970, must not have had a moving traffic violation conviction within six months of the state finals, and hold a valid Virginia operators license.

The Road-E-O contestants will compete in both written and skill driving tests. First, second and third place in both boys and girls competition will be recognized, and the first place winners will compete in the state finals. Interested teenagers are encouraged to file the following form prior To April 11, 1971. Mail to the Appomattox County Jaycees, Box 82, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

The meeting was called to order April 2, 1971, by President, Danny Hix. Beverly Coleman and Debra Scruggs led us in the pledges to the flag, and the song leaders led us in some singing. The secretary, Ben Maxwell, read the minutes of the last meeting. The old business was about the County-Share-The Fun and seed for a wildlife seed patch. For new business we discussed the June Is Dairy Month Posters, and took the quiz on the Photo Fun Project. Nancy Smith gave a demonstration on babysitting. Ben Maxwell gave a report on tractors, since his project is small engines. Johnny Tolbert gave a report on swine. Robert Thomas gave a report on dairy cattle and Jimmy Lakes gave a report on Dog Care and Training.
